*Source: Milwaukee City Water Department file of properties where water service has been shut off divided by the total number of residential properties (2012, 2018).

Data reflects the number of water shut offs as of November 2018. Classification Method: For comparison purposes, Manual Intervals (6 classes) based on the geographic distribution of the data at the census block group level. Note: Outliers and Block Groups with null/missing data were removed from the analysis.

Percent of Residential Housing Water Shutoffs

2012: City average at the block level: 4.9%

2018: City average at the block level: 2.7%